

Nominate an NCHA Amateur

Mary Kingsbury Amateur Sportsmanship Award

sponsored by the
Lackey Family of LACKEY PAINTING, INC.

The Mary Kingsbury Amateur Sportsmanship Award is presented annually to an active NCHA Amateur who is:

- dedicated to the sport of cutting
- in good standing with NCHA
- exhibits good sportsmanship, fairness, and a high moral character
- has made extraordinary contributions to the sport of cutting, the horse and the association through their contribution of time, effort and interest in the NCHA and its basic endeavors

The award will be presented during the NCHA Futurity. Any NCHA member may nominate an individual who meets the nomination criteria; however, a nomination by at least one fellow amateur is preferred. Please submit a written recommendation, up to one page in length, to NCHA by October 1. Previous recipients are not eligible for further nomination; however, prior nominees can, and are encouraged to, be nominated again.
